Eddytor's Dozen

Eddytor's Dozen

by Chuck Eddy
 November 11th, 2005 12:23 PM

You know EPs are taking over the world behind everybody's back when there are even jazz ones out there now. Just like in the '40s or whenever, except not on 10-inch vinyl, apparently. And OK, post-punk jazz might not count. Though the post-punk jazz trio with an Angry Samoan in it lasts longer. And Rev. Run, whose new "album" lasts a whopping 23 minutes including its Skynyrd, Kiss, and Black Oak Arkansas samples, is nowhere to be found below (at least not yet).
